

Alia El Sawi currently serves as the Victim Assistance Specialist for Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), Homeland Security Investigations (HIS). In this capacity, she designs and provides educational trainings and outreach to law enforcement, attorneys, mainstream service providers, and community-based organizations on human trafficking and child exploitation. She conducts victim interviews and assists victims in obtaining a form of temporary immigration relief available to human trafficking survivors. Prior to her work with ICE, Alia was the Anti-Human Trafficking Program Coordinator at Tapestri, Inc. As such, she provided trainings, outreach and direct services/case management to foreign-born survivors of human trafficking. Alia has served as the Chair of the Department of Health and Human Services' Rescue & Restore Board for 3 years and as the Freedom Network's Social Service Committee Chair for 3 years. Alia received her B.A. degrees in International Affairs and French from Mercer University and has received her Masters degree from Boston University in Criminal Justice with a focus in Victimology. She also speaks Arabic, French, and Spanish.
