

Shinji Morokuma

Shinji Morokuma is Program Director for the Office of Court Professionals in the Judicial Council of Georgia /Administrative Office of the Courts. He serves as executive staff to the Georgia Commission on Interpreters, the Georgia Board of Court Reporting, the Judicial Council Court Reporting Matters Committee, the Court Reporters Training Council, and Georgia Certified Process Servers. He also works on special projects for the Georgia Commission on Dispute Resolution.

Morokuma previously managed his own law and mediation practice, in which he mediated a variety of civil and divorce cases and served also as a mediation trainer and coach for several local universities and training institutions.

Before attending law school, Morokuma worked as a writer and editor for 11 years, first for the University of Rochester, and later for an international journalism and First Amendment foundation in Arlington, Va.

Morokuma earned his B.A. in psychology from the University of Rochester in 1984 and his J.D. from Georgia State University College of Law in 1998. He has been a member of the Georgia Bar since 1998 and a Georgia Registered Mediator since 1997.