

Dalia Racine is a 2003 graduate of Emory Law School in Atlanta, Georgia and a 2000 graduate of the University of Florida in Gainesville. She is currently a Deputy Chief Assistant District Attorney at the DeKalb County District Attorney's Office in Decatur, Georgia. Dalia has been over the D.A.T.E. (DeKalb Anti-Trafficking and Exploitation) Watch Unit in the DA's office since its inception. The D.A.T.E. Watch unit has handled over 90 defendants charged with human trafficking or related crimes. To date, they maintain a 100% conviction rate and average sentence of 11.5 years.

In January 2015, Dalia and her team created the D.A.T.E. Watch Taskforce. They brought together over 50 community partners, including; law enforcement, service providers, schools and businesses to combat human trafficking in DeKalb County. The Taskforce members signed a protocol that developed a coordinated response in handling these cases.

Dalia is also representing the DeKalb County DA's Office in the Criminal Justice Coordinating Council Statewide Human Trafficking Taskforce. She has traveled across the state of Georgia and the United States training law enforcement, prosecutors, service providers and the community-at-large regarding the issue of Human Trafficking.

Prior to joining the DeKalb DA's office, Dalia Racine was a prosecutor with the Fulton County District Attorney's Office in Atlanta, Georgia for over 7 years. She served as a Senior Assistant District Attorney in the Crimes Against Women and Children unit and Homicide Unit. She has successfully investigated, prepared and prosecuted child molestation, sexual assault and pimping cases. In addition, Dalia handled homicide cases that involved prostitution and pimping.
