

Camila Wright Zolfaghari's BIO:

Camila Wright Zolfaghari was appointed by Attorney General Sam Olens to be a prosecutor at the Attorney General's Office dedicated to the prosecution of human trafficking in 2014. As a prosecutor for the Attorney General's Office, she has the authority to prosecute human trafficking throughout the entire state and assists jurisdictions as they work these complex cases. In addition to handling prosecutions, Ms. Wright conducts trainings around the state and across the country for law enforcement and prosecutors, and she oversees the Attorney General's policy agenda on human trafficking. She chairs the statewide law enforcement workgroup and recently oversaw the development and standardization of 8 hours of human trafficking training materials.

Prior to this position she was the head of the Human Trafficking Unit for the Fulton County District Attorney's Office where she was responsible for the prosecution of all cases related to human trafficking and the commercial sexual exploitation of children. She prosecuted the first case of Human trafficking against a buyer and prosecuted several traffickers who ended up with sentences of Life without Parole. She focuses on the domestic trafficking of children, and the majority of her work involves young local girls who are manipulated and trafficked into a life of prostitution. She works closely with the FBI, GBI, ICE, local law enforcement agencies and other community partners to investigate and prosecute trafficking cases.

Ms. Wright has prosecuted many human traffickers and many of the traffickers she has prosecuted have received life sentences. She has convicted buyers as well as sellers of human trafficking.

Ms. Wright actively participates in the Criminal Justice Coordinating Council CSEC Taskforce, the FBI MATCH Taskforce, and the Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children Multi-Disciplinary Team. She also trains law enforcement, prosecutors and forensic interviewers across the state to investigate and prosecute human trafficking crimes.

Ms. Wright obtained her J.D. from the University of North Carolina and her L.L.M in International Law from the University of Amsterdam, and was a researcher at the University of Amsterdam in the field of International Law. She also worked as an Assistant District Attorney in North Carolina where her focus was child molestation and child abuse cases
