

“Georgia Reflections on Ferguson” Summit

Presented by the Judicial Council of Georgia’s Access, Fairness, Public Trust and Confidence Committee

THURSDAY, December 15, 2016

President’s Room, University Center, 1501 Mercer University Drive, Macon, GA 31220

The “Georgia Reflections on Ferguson” Summit is planned by the Access, Fairness, Public Trust and Confidence Committee, the Council of Municipal Court Judges, and the Institute of Continuing Judicial Education. The Summit will take place on December 15, 2016, in the President’s Room, University Center, at Mercer University. We are holding this event on December 15, 2016, to commemorate the “Bill of Rights” Day.

The Summit will focus on the role of the courts in addressing the justice issues raised in the Department of Justice Report from Ferguson, Missouri.

When: Thursday, December 15, 2016 from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM (EST)

Where: President’s Room, University Center, Mercer University, 1501 Mercer University Drive, Macon, GA 31220, <http://us.mercer.edu/directions/>

This event is not a program of Mercer University.

We anticipate that CJE credit will be approved for several classes of courts. An application for ICLE credit is also pending. Please note that the cost of ICLE credit hours is NOT included in the Summit registration fee. More information will be available on the Summit’s home page as it becomes available.
